Surrounded by the cool blue waters of the Atlantic Ocean, the Canary Islands show off all their magic in an archipelago unique in the world for its diversity and subtropical beauty; an entire universe that you can enjoy in a spring-like climate which lasts twelve months a year. Some historians presume that the legendary continent Atlantis was located here. Deeply marked by their volcanic origin, the Canary Islands are a genuine paradise inviting you to escape and relax only 2 hours' flying time from mainland Spain and 4 from the main cities of Europe. The 7 Islands, El Hierro, La Palma, La Gomera, Tenerife, Gran Canaria, Fuerteventura and Lanzarote, all of which are truly spectacular and at the same time very different one from another, seduce the visitor with an exceptional range of tourism options among which you will find the best accommodations and top quality leisure and cultural activities. Immense white dunes and crystal-clear waters, lunar landscapes, forests, secret bays with brilliant black sand, volcanoes, broad golden-sanded beaches and all the flavour of typical little villages with deep-rooted popular fiestas and gastronomy is what you will find in the Canary Islands. The islands are also the perfect place to get close to nature in a more active way: trekking, paragliding, surfing, sailing, golf ... 365 days to enjoy just what you like one hundred percent!

The Canary Islands

Land of a Thousand Volcanoes this unique island of spent lava fields is recognised as a World Biosphere Reserve with lunar like landscape and fabulous beaches. Lanzarote is a true eco-tourist's delight!

Known as the Miniature Continent for the variety of climates and landscapes Gran Canaria offers a wide range of sights and activities year round. From the big city bustle of the capital, Las Palmas, to the secluded serenity of its many beaches and lush woodlands you find all at once.

Golf courses, yacht marinas, conference centres, theme parks, beaches... Tenerife offers a complete range of leisure activities to satisfy all kinds of tastes under the attentive gaze of El Teide, the highest mountain in Spain.

La Palma is called the Pretty Isle by Canary Islanders for its spectacularly lush vegetation, abundant clear waters and floral wealth contrasting with the many volcanic forms that are testimony to the island's origins.

La Gomera is surprisingly varied and full of contrasts; impressive gorges, grand rock monoliths, marvellous palm groves and the Garajonay National Park, a unique ecological treasure of crystal clear waters and green laurel forests.

El Hierro is a magic island, and Pozo de la Salud, a prodigious spring with curative properties, adds to the magic, as well as the fascinating underwater formations seen just off the rugged coastline.

The unusual sight of windmills, a reminder of its farming past, can be found throughout Fuerteventura, known as the Granary of the Canary Islands and surrounded by no less than 150 beaches.
